

Please release the language of the proposed rule change on media consolidation and allow time for public debate on this important subject. Our freedom of information has already been seriously contracted by the condensation of ownership. Allowing any further relaxation of the rules is contrary to our best interests as a nation.